ACACIA AVENUE P. T. ASSOCIATION.

The Mothers Club of the Acacia Avenue School has joined the P.T. Association in a body and held their regular session last week at which a very interesting program was given, after which refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Priaulx and Mrs. Irving Oliver.

DEATH OF MRS. ATWATER

Mrs. Harriet Chase Atwater, a resident of Pasadena for a number of years, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Harriet H. Paramore, 3324 Brand boulevard, Los Angeles. She was 73 years old a native of Philadelphia and had lived in California for about eight years. Besides Mrs. Paramore, she is survived by another daughter, Mrs. J. Howard Atterbury of Baltimore. Funeral services were held at the Chapel of Ives and Warren Co. Later the body will be taken to Hopkinton, N. H., for burial.

CELEBRATED 75TH BIRTHDAY

Friday, October 25th was Grandma Lucas' 75th birthday and she invited some of her most intimate friends to help her celebrate. The invited guests were: Mrs. Myers, "Grandma V.," Mrs. Conklin, Mrs. Annie West, Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Munger, and the combined ages of the guests was 546 years. "Grandma V.," the oldest of the guests, is 83 years of age and the youngest is 60 years.

Grandma Lucas was the oldest of 11 children, all of whom are living, the youngest one being 50 years of age. She has 15 grandchildren and three great grandchildren, and has raised a family of 11 children, 7 boys and four girls. Three of the boys are dentists. The great event of the day was the passing of the King and Queen. Grandma Lucas and the Queen are namesakes, whom Grandma Lucas had the pleasure of seeing. On her return home she found the table tastefully decorated with two large birthday cakes, and which fairly groaned under the burden of good things to eat. The guests were seated and the hostess of the day was assisted in serving the dinner by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. P. O. Lucas, and granddaughter, Miss. Irma. The birthday cakes were gifts of Mrs. P. O. Lucas and Mrs. Annie West and a number of other beautiful gifts were presented. At a late hour the guests departed wishing Grandma many more happy returns of the day.

THE LIVESTOCK SHOW.

A visit to Exposition Park where the Second Annual Livestock Show is now in progress, will convince anyone that this section can hold its own against all comers, in the line of fine blooded stock.

The event is what its name implies, "A Livestock Show," as there is no "Floral Hall" with its exhibition of needlework, fruits or manufactured articles, but horses, cattle and hogs, with goats a-plenty and a mammoth poultry exhibit, afford a display that draws immense crowds. Then on week days a fine racing program gives the touch of the "Old County Fair."

The show closes Sunday. If you have not gone, better get busy.

The mysteries of the Divine Nature are none the less beyond our comprehension than the secrets of our own natures.

AMERICANIZATION DAY

Monday, October 27, the birthday anniversary of Theodore Roosevelt, is designated as "Americanization Day" in a proclamation issued by Governor Stephens and made public in Southern California by Marshall Stimson, chairman in this division of the Roosevelt Memorial Association.

Following is the proclamation:

"In honor of the memory of Theodore Roosevelt and in appreciation of his great services to our country, I hereby designate Monday, October 27, his birthday anniversary, as Americanization Day, and suggest that in our schools and among our people there be fitting observance.

"The Roosevelt Memorial Association will, on October 20, begin a campaign to raise funds to establish memorials in honor of the man who contributed so greatly in inspiration of our citizenship with best ideals.

"Whatever difference there may have been with the political views of Theodore Roosevelt there is common acceptance of his great spirit of Americanism and it is this influence we must carry on to inspire our people with worthy citizenship and true patriotism.

"WILLIAM D. STEPHENS,
"Governor."

John H. Braley has been appointed to take charge in Glendale and he has made arrangements with the banks and schools to care for this fund. There will be no house-to-house canvas, but it is hoped that everyone will contribute—children through their teachers and older person through the banks. Glendale will do its share, we know.

TRUSTEES PROCEEDINGS

The regular meeting of the Board of Trustees was held October 23, 1919.

The Board assembled at 8:10 P. M. All members present. Minutes of the regular meeting of October 16, 1919, were read and approved.

Communication From City Manager's Association.

A communication was read from the City Manager's Association of New York City requesting that the City of Glendale be represented by its City Manager at the annual meeting of the City Managers' Association to be held in Indianapolis, October 27, 1919.

Application to Do Street Work by Private Contract.

An application for permit to do street work by private contract, consisting of a portion of a four foot side walk on Columbus avenue, south of Stocker street, was presented from Fred A. Tarr. On motion of Trustee Woodberry the permit was granted, subject to the approval of the Street Superintendent.

Ayes: Henry, Jackson, Muhleman, Shaw, Woodberry.

Noes: None.

Absent: None.

Communication From County Auditor

A communication to the City Clerk from H. A. Payne, County Auditor, was read, calling attention to the fact that under the provisions of a new section of the law adopted by the last Legislature, provision is made for any Municipal Corporation which elects to avail itself of the act, allowing the transferring of the duties of assessing and collecting of municipal taxes to county officers, that the redemption of property that had become delinquent prior to the transferring of the duties in connection with tax collection to county officers, shall be effected through the office of the County Auditor. The communication made a request that the delinquent tax rolls of the city of Glendale on which appear unpaid delinquent taxes be turned over to the County Auditor. Referred to the City Attorney.

Ordinance Amending Salary Ordinance.

On motion of Trustee Henry, the ordinance presented at the regular meeting of October 16, 1919, authorizing the employment of certain employees of the City was adopted as Ordinance No. 362.

In Re. Progress on Verdugo Wash Protection Work.

Trustee Woodberry brought to the attention of the Board the unsatisfactory progress of the work being done in the Verdugo Wash by the County Flood Control. In his opinion the work will not be completed in time to afford any protection during the present season unless more progress is made in the near future than has been accomplished so far. On motion the matter was referred to Trustee Woodberry to take up with the authorities in charge of the work.

The City Attorney made a report on the matter referred to him in regard to the request of the County Auditor, advising the Clerk to comply with the request.

Adjourned.

ENDORSES WATER BONDS

At the meeting of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce held last Tuesday evening in the City Hall, the Water Bonds, election for which will be held on November 12, were unanimously endorsed by the Chamber. The Chamber of Commerce will work in every way that the coming issue will carry.

The matter of having the women of Glendale as active members of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce was also unanimously endorsed and it is expected that at the next meeting there will be many of the fair sex present.

A Board of Directors was also elected, consisting of H. P. Coker, Chairman, Robert S. Jensen, O. A. Lane, Frank S. Chase and E. E. Green. Frank S. Chase was elected as Vice-President and F. H. Vesper as Treasurer.

J. W. Uslton is President and R. M. Jackson is Secretary.

The next meeting will be held next Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the City Hall Building and it is expected that a large number will be present.

You are welcome.

MAKE AN HOUR

Sunday morning, October 26, at "2 o'clock" if you want to work according to "Hoyle," you will set your clock back to "1 o'clock." Of course you can do this when you go to bed at night or when you get up in the morning—but at any event do it.

The Hornpipe.

The "hornpipe" is an old English dance peculiar to England. In fact, one might almost say it was the chief dance of the British sailor, and is still. Modern "hornpipes" are in common time and of a more lively character than the ancient form. It is supposed to have received its name from the instrument which was played during its performance.

Tomorrow must have no charm for the man who is sure that he knows everything.

Nobody yells louder for mercy when he is cornered than the bully who has never shown any mercy.

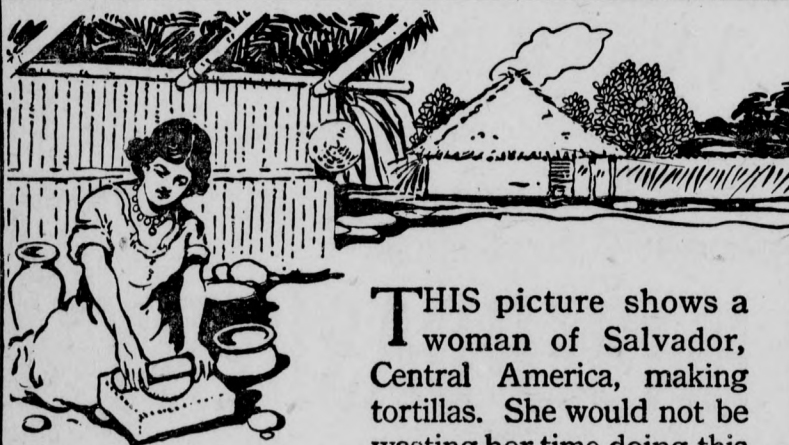

Every once in a while we get a chuckle out of hearing some millionaire tell a friend that he is short of ready cash.

You can't have your cake and eat it, but what most of us want in this life is the joy of having a little cake to eat now and then.

We don't know much about human nature, but we've never yet met a man who did much compromising with the man he had licked.

We believe in being sympathetic, but somehow or other we find it hard to be sorry for the man who deserves all he gets.

If the world is really going to be made fit for decent people to live in something will have to be done with the man who insists on using the street car floor for a cuspidor.

AT THE PALACE GRAND

Saturday, October 25, will be a day of laughter for every one who sees Mary Pickford in her most excellent production, supported by her own company of players, in "The Hoodlum."

This is a masterpiece of humor and will be shown for one day only. It is heralded as the biggest comedy of this noted screen actress' career.

"The Hoodlum" is Mary Pickford in ten humorous character parts you have never seen and is a greater success than "Daddy Longlegs."

Regular prices and three evening shows—6:15, 8:00 and 9:30.

Also children's and adults' matinee at 2:30.

On Sunday, October 26, the famous farce comedy from the great play of laughs, "Please Get Married," will be the attraction. A wee bit naughty but a mighty enjoyable story, portrayed and acted by all-star cast. You'll like this picture immensely.

Also a two-reel comedy, "The Immovable Guest," on this date.

Two evening shows—6:45 and 8:45. Matinee at 2:30.

Kate Douglas Wiggin's novel, "Rose O' the River," will be presented on Monday, October 27, with Lila Lee in the title role, supported by many prominent screen characters. Also a new Strand Comedy and the latest Pathe World News.

Two evening shows—7:00 and 8:45. Matinee at 2:30.

Tuesday, October 23, Louise Glaum presents a tremendous and luxurious drama of Paris, Egyptian Desert and Cairo, entitled "Sahara," a masterful production of seven reels. A big desert play, beautifully told. Also Harold Lloyd Comedy, "The Old Stage Door."

Two evening shows—7:00 and 8:45—and matinee at 2:30.

Wednesday October 29, Mabel Normand appears at this theater in a lively picture, entitled "Jinx."

This is a picture of the circus—the greatest and biggest shows on earth and is well worth seeing.

A new comedy, with Neal Burns, "As You Were," will be shown also on this day, together with the latest Pathe World News.

Two evening shows—7:00 and 8:45. Matinee at 2:30.

The big new ParamountArtafact special production, "The Teeth of the Tiger," an Arsene Lupin story, will be the gigantic attraction on Thursday, October 30. A crook melodrama of gripping action, hair-raising thrills, suspense and mystery, featuring an all star cast of players. Also Outing Chester Adventure, "Getting Gay With Neptune," and the latest Kinogram News.

Two evening shows—7:00 and 8:45.

"Why Smith Left Home," with Bryant Washburn, will be presented on Friday, October 31. This is a delightful farce comedy from the humorous play by George Broadhurst. It's a riot of fun—don't miss it. Three hours married and he hadn't kissed her yet. He started to—then—

A train wreck, a fire, an earthquake, a cloudburst, tried to separate them—no wonder Smith left home!

"Before Breakfast," a Harold Lloyd comedy will also be shown on this date and a Burton Holmes Adventure Travelogue.

Two evening shows—7:00 and 8:45. Matinee daily at 2:30.

An incomparable collection of good pictures for this week. Don't miss them.

THE CHEERFUL CHERUB

My youthful hopes can't die because
Though I attain them never I'll wrap them in immortal verse
And thus they'll live forever.
